

TOWN of MIDDLEFIELD, CONNECTICUT

PROCLAMATION

Be it known that the Citizens of Middlefield and Rockfall hereby recognize and applaud Jennifer Huddleston for her extraordinary leadership, public service, dedication, and environmental stewardship; and

Whereas, Jen serves with dedication as Chair of the Middlefield Economic Development Commission and as Chair of the Middlefield Division of the Chamber of Commerce, working tirelessly to promote local business vitality and sustainable economic growth; and

Whereas, Jen advances regional outdoor access and ecological stewardship as point person for the multi-use trail project linking Middlefield with Durham and spearheaded workshops on invasive plant identification and removal to advocate for healthier native landscapes; and

Whereas, Jen serves as Board President of the Rockfall Foundation, guiding and strengthening efforts in conservation, open space, and environmental education; and

Whereas, Jen is owner and steward of Indian Springs Golf Course, recognized by Connecticut Magazine as the Best Public Golf Course for 2024 and 2025, reflecting her commitment to business excellence and community recreation; and

Whereas, Jen's legacy of service includes founding the Durham/Middlefield Giving Garden, chairing the Middlefield Clean Energy Task Force, helping to launch Coginchaug Area Transition, coaching Odyssey of the Mind teams (including Worlds), coaching Coginchaug Little League softball for 12 years, and leading a Girl Scout troop for 6 years;

Now, Therefore, the Board of Selectmen, declare this

15th day of November, 2025
as

Jen Huddleston Day!

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Robert C. Yamartino".

Robert C. Yamartino
First Selectman